

Use the Career Exploration Reading Passage to answer the following questions:

1. List seven areas that an energy auditor would inspect and document to determine the energy usage of a building:
2. List places an energy auditor would find information on building construction, insulation and heating/cooling equipment.
3. What kind of information can the auditor find by walking through the facility?
4. Summarize the main components of an energy auditor's final report:
5. Would you consider becoming an energy auditor? Why or why not?